

YEAR 11 HISTORY LEARNING JOURNEY

REVISION AND EXAM PREPARATION

We will spend time in class and in specific revision sessions before the exam reviewing and preparing for the two History exam papers which each contain two distinct topics. Included will be four walking talking mock exams of 1 hour each. Students will be encouraged to construct their own model answers which will be evaluated.

The final unit of the course is our most modern unit of history we teach across the whole school. This wider world depth study enables students to understand the complex and diverse interests of diverse groups, races, nations, and rogue states. It focuses specifically on conflict in the Gulf and Afghanistan and seeks to show how and why conflict occurred and why it proved difficult to resolve the tensions which arose. Events such the first Gulf War, September 11 attacks and individuals such as Saddam Hussain and Osama Bin Laden are studied in the context of wider geopolitical context. We use modern sources and media to analyse the context of the time and how people were impacted.
