

Beauvale Priory

Beauvale Priory was founded in 1343 by Nicholas de Cantilupe and was dedicated to the Carthusian Order of monks. The monks lived a silent life here at Beauvale for 200 years until the Dissolution of the Monasteries, when they refused to sign the Oath of Supremacy acknowledging Henry VIII as the head of the Church. Saint John Houghton and Saint Robert Lawrence became the first Pro-martyrs of the Reformation and were canonized in 1970.
