

LET THE CHILDREN LIVE!®

Let The Children Live
A Saint John Houghton whole school charity.

SJH are delighted to respond to the parish request and support 'Let The Children Live' life in its fulness for children in Columbia.

Let The Children Live

- £50 would provide lunch and a healthy snack for one child for one month in Casa Walsingham.
- £25 would pay for one child's bus fares to and from Casa Walsingham for one month.
- £10 would buy a school pack for one child of primary age.
- The work supported by Let The Children Live in Medellin is based at Casa Walsingham, a day-centre for boy and girls at high school risk.
- Saint John Houghton students are challenged to raise funds for this charity, pray for the volunteers and have fun along the way.
