FROM THE HEADTEACHER

Friday 9th
January 2026

Dear Readers,

Welcome back to the latest edition of our Newsletter and a very Happy New Year to you all. I sincerely hope that you were able to enjoy some quality time together as families over the festive period and that you were able to enjoy each other's company.

It has been a difficult week in school with the weather and the disruption it has caused to routines. As we are in the 'crazy weather' season, a reminder that parents and carers should always assume that school is open on any given day. We will always endeavour to notify parents and carers as close to 7am as possible if a school closure is necessary on health and safety grounds. These are always difficult decisions to make and a number of factors are considered.

This does feel an appropriate place to wish all of those going on the skiing trip all the very best and to wish them a safe return after a brilliant time away. They depart tomorrow and return next Saturday.

Finally, we are delighted to announce that Miss Sanderson's baby boy (Jaxon) arrived over the Christmas holidays. We are so happy that mother and baby are both doing well!

More next week... Garde ta Foi! Guard your Faith!

Nut Allergies:

We have several students within school who have severe nut allergies. We aim to be a nut free school and kindly remind parents/carers and students that nuts and food containing nuts must not be brought into School.

Year 11 photographs – Monday 19 January 2026:

Year 11 will have their individual and year group photographs taken on Monday 19 January 2026, please ensure that students are dressed in their full appropriate school uniform.

2026-2027 inset days:

The inset days for 2026-2027 have now been set, please see last page of newsletter for the confirmed dates.

For Year 11 students:

Do you attend a Modern Foreign Language school to study an additional language e.g. Polish, Chinese? If you would like to sit the GCSE examinations for that subject in summer 2026, please speak to Mrs Morris, Exams Officer to discuss.

Science News:

In the final week before half term Miss Turgoose introduced classes 7T2/Bi and 9T2/Ph to 'I'm A Scientist Get Me Out of Here'. In this, the students were set homework to look into specific current scientists, in readiness for an online chat with them during our lesson.

The year 7 scientists were all based in jobs to do with cells, which is the topic we've been working on this term. This included scientists working on genetics and others on biopsies that help consultants to diagnose patients and manage their conditions.

The Year 9 scientists came from jobs based on different energy sources - there were some really interesting scientists who joined this talk, including one who was a nuclear reactor decommissioner! Students in both groups thoroughly enjoyed their chats with the scientists, and said it gave them a deeper understanding and appreciation of jobs available to them when they leave school based on science.

Alton Castle Trip:

Just before Christmas the year 7s, Miss Turgoose, Mr Carr, Miss Leverton and Rachel went on their residential to Alton Castle, a new venue for Saint John Houghton.

Whilst there we did sessions about Catholicism, the meaning of Christmas, including learning about the Jesse tree. We also attended a beautiful Mass where our students were involved in various roles including reading of scripture and prayers.

Alongside all of this we also went biking, on the low ropes, climbing, trekking and on nightline in the dark. The students were exhausted by the end of our 3 days, but we all had an absolutely brilliant (and very muddy) time!

Thank you to all of the students for their brilliant behaviour and to the staff who accompanied them on the trip too!

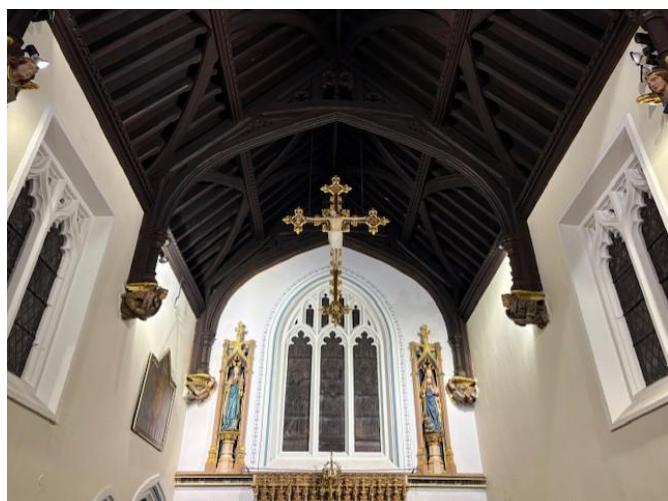

Please see the next few pages for some photos of the fun we had:

Attendance Matters – A Fresh Start for the New Year:

As we begin a brand-new year, it's the perfect time to reset, refocus, and build positive habits that will help every child thrive. One of the most important foundations for success is good school attendance. Each day in school provides valuable learning, social connection, and routine—key ingredients for progress and wellbeing.

After the winter break, returning to consistent attendance helps children settle back into structure, rebuild momentum, and feel confident in their learning. Even small improvements make a big difference over time.

Why Attendance Matters

- Every lesson builds on the last—missing days can make learning harder.
- Regular attendance supports friendships and emotional wellbeing.
- Good habits now lead to strong routines for the future.

Wellbeing Tip of the Week: Start small. Encourage your child to choose one simple, positive habit for the new year—such as getting their school bag ready the night before or going to bed 15 minutes earlier. Small steps create big change and help mornings feel calmer for everyone.

Quote of the week: "The secret of getting ahead is getting started." – Mark Twain

Let's work together to make 2026 a year full of growth, resilience, and success. Thank you for your continued support in helping your child attend, engage, and achieve.

Remember the attendance team are here for you attendance@sjh.srscmat.co.uk

SCHOOL NEWS

Attendance is vital for academic success, fostering strong social skills, building crucial life skills like responsibility and punctuality, and preparing individuals for better future opportunities in higher education and employment:

At SJH, pupils must arrive in school by 8:45 am each school day. Coming late is disruptive to the pupil who is late, and other students in the school. For some pupils, this can cause embarrassment and anxiety.

Registration takes place at 08:45am, and is kept open until 9:10am.
 The second session is taken at 2:15 pm.

Leave of absence is only granted by the headteacher in certain circumstances.

TERM TIME ABSENCES:

Circumstances allowed:

- Taking part in a regulated performance
- Attending an interview
- Study leave
- Visit to a prospective new school/college
- Bereavement
- Religious observance

Not Considered "Exceptional circumstances":

- Family holidays if families are unable to afford in school time
- To visit family abroad
- To spend time with family visiting from abroad
- Parents/carers unable to get time off work during school holidays
- Family traditions of holidays at a certain time of year
- Going away for birthdays, including the students birthday
- Flight delays unless evidence supplied
- Illness after a school holiday or trip

ILLNESS:

Unauthorised attendance:

All absences will be marked as unauthorised on day 4 and onwards unless medical advice is sought/given. Arriving after the register has closed will affect students attendance. Medical appointments without evidence are also unauthorised.

Reasons that will be unauthorised:

- Period pains / cramps unless under medical care with evidence	- Missed bus
- Common colds	- Family or own birthdays
- Headaches unless under medical care with evidence	- "Unwell" - you must give an explanation
- Headlice	- Oversleeping
	- Parent too unwell / unable to bring student to school

Please try and make medical appointments out of school time, and daily contact is required for absences if more than 1 day is required.

If your child has diarrhoea and/or vomiting they must not attend until they have been free of symptoms for 48 hours (the '48 hour rule') and feel well.

If no contact is made, absences will be marked as unauthorised.

Is my child too ill for school? - NHS (www.nhs.uk)

PLEASE BE AWARE: due to the advice of the local authority we have to send a letter to each person with parental responsibility regarding attendance, and not a joint letter.

An empowering novel of resistance inspired by Sampat Pal and the Pink Sari Gang from the multi-award-winning author of Run, Rebel and The Crossing

Rizu lives a comfortable life in the gated middle class suburbs of Delhi; her biggest worries are getting her homework done and keeping up with the mean girls at school. That is, until she's accused of being a witch and the hysteria that follows triggers a chain reaction that ends in tragedy and life as she knew it changes forever.

Alone and fearing for her life, Rizu runs away and joins a group of pink sari wearing, stick wielding women, known for their revenge vigilantism. Together they can help Rizu take back her life and seek justice against those who wronged her.

Because sometimes you have to run through the streets and ROAR.

Charlie Higson's The Enemy is the first in a jaw-dropping zombie horror series for teens. Everyone over the age of fourteen has succumbed to a deadly zombie virus and now the kids must keep themselves alive.

When the sickness came, every parent, police officer, politician - every adult fell ill. The lucky ones died. The others are crazed, confused and hungry.

Only children under fourteen remain, and they're fighting to survive.

Now there are rumours of a safe place to hide. And so a gang of children begin their quest across London, where all through the city - down alleyways, in deserted houses, underground - the grown-ups lie in wait.

But can they make it there - alive?

From award winning author Lucy Strange comes a thrilling story of six sisters who must fight against circumstance and fate, gorgeously told and steeped in history and legend.

On a poor farm surrounded by marshlands, six sisters -- Grace, Willa, Freya, and triplets Deedee, Darcy, and Dolly -- live in fear of their father and the superstition that haunts The Curse of the Six Daughters. Their beloved grandmother tries to protect them, but the future seems bleak. When the Full Moon Fayre makes a rare visit to Hollow-in-the-Marsh, the girls slip out to see the famous Shadow Man, an enigmatic puppeteer. Afterwards, oldest sister Grace is missing. Following the Full Moor Fayre into the Lost Marsh, Willa will have to battle her inner doubts and the legends that have haunted her family.

Can she save her sister from one fate, and outrun her own?

Adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament
P E A C E

Opening Hymn
O Sacrament Most Holy,
O Sacrament Divine,
all praise and all thanksgiving
be every moment thine.

Reader 1 : Opening Prayer
Heavenly Father,
Bestow on us, we pray, O Lord, the spirit of charity and devotion, that, as we come before your Son, truly present in this Most Blessed Sacrament, our hearts may be filled with awe, gratitude, and love. Sustained by the Body and Blood of your Only Begotten Son, may we draw strength from His abiding presence and be transformed more fully into His likeness.
Grant that this sacred time of adoration may renew our faith, deepen our hope, and enkindle within us the flame of your divine love, so that, strengthened by your grace, we may go forth to nurture among all people the peace that Christ has left us and the unity that He desires for His Church.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Reader 2 : The Word
James 3:13-18
Beloved:
Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show his works by a good life in the humility that comes from wisdom. But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. Wisdom of this kind does not come down from above but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace.

Silence

Taizé Chant

My peace I give you, my peace I leave you:
Trouble not your hearts!
My peace I give you, my peace I leave you;
be not afraid

Reader 3
On 12 October, Pope Leo XIV said: "Let us ask God, the only Peace of humanity, to heal all wounds and to help with his grace to accomplish what humanity now seems impossible: to rediscover that the other is not an enemy, but a brother to whom we must look, forgive, offer the hope of reconciliation."

Reader 4 : Psalm
Psalm 122:1-2,4-9
Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you.
I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the Lord."
And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem.
To it the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
According to the decree for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.
In it are set up judgment seats,
seats for the house of David.
Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
May those who love you prosper!
May peace be within your walls,
prosperity in your buildings.
Because of my relatives and friends
I will say, "Peace be within you!"
Because of the house of the Lord, our God,
I will pray for your good.

Silence

Reader 5 : Litany of Peace
The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace.
May the Lord bless his people with peace.
(repeated after each invocation)

May the Lord bless his people with peace.
Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
I will listen for the word of God; surely the Lord will proclaim peace.
Love and truth will meet; justice and peace will kiss.
For family and friends, I say, "May peace be yours."
